3R MANAGEMENT SUITE

(Recruitment, Retention and Retirement)

The process of recruiting employees is crucial to an organization's success and proper timing is essential. Collect detailed applicant data, manage the interview process, then complete your hiring process with just a few simple steps in the 3R Management Suite.

- Hiring the correct applicant can reduce training costs and give your organization a competitive advantage.
- By incorporating external recruitment you can provide new, innovative ideas for management strategies, creating a forward-thinking approach that stimulates both advancement and growth.

> PRODUCT BENEFITS:

- Manage the entire recruitment process from initial posting to contract signing.
- Collect crucial data in individual applicant profiles.
- Attach resumes to applicant profiles.
- Allow applicants to apply for multiple vacancies with no duplicate data entry.

> PRODUCT EXPERIENCE:

- Our Recruitment in the 3R Management Suite allows you to post your openings and parse incoming resumes appropriately to easily match the applicant to the talents needed.
- Candidates can self-serve much of the onboarding process via the portal.
- Attracting talent can require complicated compensation packages. Put those controls in the hands of your Human Resource professionals with automated tools that don't encumber operations or require development time.
